Re: REQUEST FOR AUTHORITY TO PARTICIPATE ON THE TRAINING ON MICROBIOLOGICAL TESTING FOR FOOF PATHOGENS ON DECEMBER 3-6, 2024, AT THE FNRI BLDG., DOST COMPUND, GEN. SANTOS AVE., BICUTAN, TAGUIG

Greetings!

The field of Food Technology has been added to the professions currently regulated by the Professional Regulation Commission, with signing of the Republic Act No. 11052, also known as "Philippines-Food Technology Act", last June 2018, by President Rodrigo R. Duterte. Under the law, the newly created Board of Food Technology is tasked to promulgate, administer, and enforce rules and regulations as well as supervise and regulate the registration, licensure, and practice food technology in the country.

As a service college, there are faculty members teaching subjects like General Microbiology, Food Microbiology, Food Chemistry and the likes which are part of the Bachelor of Science in Food Technology (BSFT) programs as well as Bachelor of Applied Science in Laboratory Technology (BASLT) and Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (BSES) for Microbiology subjects.

In line with this, the undersigned is requesting for an authority of approval of the participation, registration fee and a vehicle for transportation of the following faculty members:

Name	Subject Handled	Nature of Participation	Registration Fee
Maria Carmelita G. Sapina	Food Chemistry & Qualichem	Participant	P 13,500.00
	TOTAL		P 13,500.00

Likewise, may the undersigned request for the direct payment amounting to P 13,500.00 to DOST-FNRI Training to defray all the registration expenses of this undertaking. The said amount shall be charged to the College of Science-Attendance to trainings, seminar, conferences, webinars and workshops.

Further, Asst. Prof. Glorice Ergino will serve as the OIC-Head for the Chemistry Department and Assoc. Prof. Jervie M. Oliveros as OIC-Dean for the Dean's Office of the College of Science.

Please find the attached pertinent documents for your kind perusal.

The undersigned is looking forward to your utmost consideration and very kind approval.
